5 Easy Ways to Support Writing at Home

1. Help your child learn the letters of the alphabet. Read ABC books, play letter-matching games, and work on puzzles to help her identify letters. Invite her to make letters using clay.
2. Take pictures of an activity that is especially interesting to your child. Use them to write a story together.
3. Keep a portfolio of your child's writing attempts. At different times in the year, show your child her writing samples and comment on her progress.
4. Bring writing materials with you whenever you go out to the grocery store, doctor's office, or a restaurant.
5. Celebrate your child's writing by prominently hanging her work in places where it is visible to all. Knowing that writing is important will go a long way toward motivating her to write more.

More B.O.C.S. Upcoming Events

Black Heritage Festival- Coming February 28th

Committee Members Wanted

Get ready for a great time of food, friends, and activities.

I Have a Dream Speech Coming Soon!

Get ready for your scholar to share their dream for the future. All students are asked to write a 1 to 2 minute speech about their dream for the future on January 24th.

Vision Experience on Jan. 10th

All of scholars are encouraged to create a Vision Board for their life.

Boards must include at least five pictures and five power words to describe what they want to see for their lives.

Students will then attend a vision experience to share their boards with other scholars.

Please remember these are not free dress days. Your child must have on attire that matches the theme for the day or be in full uniform.
